Performance Rating Triggering PIP:		Review Cycle:

Section B: Purpose and Duration

This Performance Improvement Plan has been initiated because the employee's performance has been assessed as Below Expectations or Unsatisfactory under the NovaPack Performance Management Policy (HR-POL-001). The purpose of this PIP is to provide the employee with a structured, supported, and time-bound opportunity to improve performance to the expected standard.

The PIP will run for a period of 90 calendar days from the Start Date recorded in Section A unless the line manager and HR agree in writing to an extension. An extension may be granted for a maximum of 30 additional days where there is evidence of partial improvement and the line manager believes further time would result in the required standard being achieved.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE: Failure to achieve the performance objectives set out in this PIP within the specified timeframe may result in further disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. You are encouraged to engage fully and in good faith with this process and to raise any concerns with your line manager or the HR Department.

Section C: Performance Concerns

The following specific performance concerns have been identified and are the basis for this PIP. Each concern must reference documented evidence including prior warnings, review records, or email correspondence.

Section E: Support and Resources

NovaPack is committed to providing the employee with genuine and adequate support during the PIP period. The following support has been agreed and will be provided by the Company.

Type of Support	Details	Responsible Party
Coaching / Mentoring
Training / Courses
Additional Resources / Tools
Regular Check-in Meetings

Section F: Review Schedule

Formal review meetings will be held at the following intervals during the PIP period. The outcome of each review must be documented on the PIP Review Meeting Record (HR-FORM-018) and signed by both the line manager and the employee.

Review	Scheduled Date	Date Completed	Outcome Summary
Week 2
Week 4
Week 8
Week 12 (Final)

Section G: Final Outcome

At the conclusion of the PIP period, the line manager and HR will conduct a final assessment. One of the following outcomes will be determined and communicated to the employee in writing within five working days of the final review meeting.

- PIP Successful: The employee has met the required performance objectives. The PIP is closed. The employee will be monitored through the regular performance review cycle. A letter of completion will be issued.
- PIP Extended: The employee has demonstrated partial improvement. An extension of up to 30 calendar days is granted. Revised objectives and a new schedule will be issued in writing.
- PIP Unsuccessful: The employee has not met the required performance objectives despite adequate support and opportunity. The matter will be escalated to the Head of HR and the relevant Department Head. Further action, which may include termination of employment, will follow in accordance with the Disciplinary and Termination Policy (HR-POL-003) and applicable Malaysian employment law.

Section H: Employee Acknowledgement

By signing below, the employee acknowledges receipt of this Performance Improvement Plan and confirms that the contents have been explained. Signing does not constitute agreement with the performance assessment. The employee retains the right to raise a formal appeal or grievance in accordance with NovaPack's Grievance Policy (HR-POL-008).
